GARDENING AGREEMENT

Once you've had a chance to sit down and talk about many aspects of growing a garden together, it's a good idea to WRITE IT DOWN. That way, you know you're on the 'same page,' and you'll be able to remind yourself what you decided as the summer flies by.

This worksheet can serve as a framework for writing it all down. Make it as simple or as detailed as you want to it be. Feel free to print this page out.
