

The Salt Lake Tribune

<http://www.sltrib.com>

Owner-operated market planned in SLC

By Kathy Stephenson
The Salt Lake Tribune

Salt Lake Tribune

Updated: 06/08/2010 10:42:32 AM MDT

The Salt Lake Tribune

<http://www.sltrib.com>

Learn more about the proposed Wasatch Cooperative Market during an free presentation today, June 9, at 6 p.m. at the Chase Mill building at Tracy Aviary, 589 E. 1300 South, Salt Lake City. The local grocery co-op will function like a typical grocery store with standard hours, but will be owned and operated by members. Organizers say they need 500 member-owners before they can get the project underway. For more details, visit: www.wasatchcoop.com.

Native plant sale

Recycle Utah will hold a native plant sale, Saturday, June 12, from 9 a.m.-noon at the drop-off center, 1951 Woodbine Way, Park City. A large selection of native and drought-tolerant perennials, shrubs and trees that grow well in high altitude desert gardens will be available. Price from $2 to $6.50 for gallon-size flowers. Visit www.recycleutah.org for more information.

Preserve your produce

Learn how to store and process your garden produce on Saturday, June 12, from 10 a.m.-noon at the Grateful Tomato Garden, 800 S. 600 East, Salt Lake City. The workshop, sponsored by Wasatch Community Gardens, costs $10, and scholarships are available. To register, visit www.wasatchgardens.org.

Show needs your vote

Utah culinary instructor Susan Odell is pitching a cooking show to Oprah Winfrey's new cable network, OWN. To win, Odell is inviting Utahns to view and then vote for her audition tape. Odell operates the online food community, www.foodell.com, and teaches classes at Park City's No Place Like Home. Odell, who will call her show "The Hungry Generation," wants people to get back in the kitchen to cook. Vote as many times as you like at www.myown.oprah.com/audition.

Chocolate for a year

Win a one-year supply of Utah-made Amano chocolate. Owner Art Pollard will soon be releasing a new chocolate bar, but he isn't saying what kind of bean he used or where in the world it was grown. The person who can guess the origin of the mystery cocoa beans will win 10 bars of Amano each month for the next year -- or more than $800 worth of chocolate. To enter, fill out an entry form at www.amanochocolate.com. When the bar is released, Pollard will conduct a drawing among all entrants who guessed correctly.

Fro-yo in Salt Lake City

Red Mango has opened its first store in Salt Lake City at 2100 S. 1500 East, across from the north entrance of Sugarhouse Park. Red Mango yogurt contains beneficial active cultures and comes in original, pomegranate, vanilla and blueberry flavors. Toppings include fresh fruit, berries, nuts, granola, cereal and mochi.

Enter 'My Dad is Nutz' contest

Is your dad a "Certified Wing Nut?" Enter him in Wing Nutz Restaurant's "My Dad is Nutz" competition. Two dads, one each from Northern and Southern Utah, will win a year's supply of wings. Four "Alternate Wing Nutz" Dads will win

$50 gift cards. To enter, hand-write a 100-word essay that answers one of the following questions: 1. Has your dad done something off-the-wall just to build a strong relationship with you? 2. What crazy "bonding" adventure has your dad spearheaded for your family?" 3. How has your dad's unique parenting skills affected you for the better? 4. What makes your dad unique, different, or one crazy step ahead the rest?

Submit a completed entry form to any of the five Wing Nutz locations in Utah by 7 p.m. on Monday, June 14. (Note: Unreadable entries will be disqualified.) Submissions should include the author's name, dad's name, contact phone and e-mail. Utah Wing Nutz restaurants are located in Draper, South Jordan, Orem, Ogden and St. George. Visit www.bakedwingsarebetter.com for store locations and contest rules.

Close Window

Send To Printer